www.kcdd.org or Facebook page we are looking for input on where we are going in the next 5 years.

Kansas is unique in that 2011 Gov. Brownback signed Employment first and we are the first state to have this.

People with disabilities will; have competitive employed as part of the Every other year we host a Summit. April 21-22 at the Topeka Capitol Plaza. Keynote speakers will speak on how employment has impacted their lives. There will be workshops to help development Opening Keynote address will be from Julie Petty. Julie is an accomplished self-advocate leader and nationally. In 2011, President Obama appointed Julie to be a member of the Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities.

Erin Reihle is one of the co-founders of project SEARCH, where marketable job skills are learned. SEARCH is special is the outcomes. 70% positive results outcome. Erin will speak to why it is successful.

Dr Steven Hall is the third speaker.

There will be 24 workgroups.

If you go to employmentfirstsummit.com and you can download a copy and see what workshops are going to be available.

If you cannot attend we will be recording the keynotes and have that available as well as all of the PowerPoints via the website.
