Q. Shelly May comparable benefits- are some services exempt?

A. There are a few, but I can't tell you what.

Q. IS there a list?

A. In our policy manual. Around section 3, part 10.

There are certain services in school as we have an agreement that is about how those services and functions work out- we will be updating soon. The other thing is people receiving HCBS services, now only under the I/DD waiver and you are required to use under Intergraded means that there are more people without disabilities at the work place than people with disabilities and the first group is not there to support the other group. This also means that the pay is commensurate. No sub minimum wage. Pay must be comparable.
