KanCare Member Education Meetings

KanCare Overview

- KanCare provides services to over 400,000 people
- KanCare serves pregnant women, children, seniors and people with disabilities
- All services provided through managed care organizations (MCOs) to make sure all services work well for you
- Focused on wellness and avoiding health problems

KanCare MCOs

- First contracts were with:
 - Amerigroup of Kansas (Amerigroup)
 - Sunflower State Health Plan (Sunflower)
 - UnitedHealthcare of the Midwest (United)
- Federal government wants Kansas to create new contracts regularly
- Beginning January 1, 2019, Kansas has contracted with:
 - Aetna Better Health (Aetna)
 - Sunflower
 - United

What is Covered?

- You can still get all the services you get now. These include:
 - Doctor's appointments and hospital visits
 - Treatment for mental illness and substance use disorders
 - Prescription drugs
 - Nursing facility care and in home help
 - Transportation
 - All other services you are getting now

KanCare Protections for You

- You can choose your KanCare health plan (MCO)
- You can choose your doctor
- You can change your doctor
- If a doctor you need is only available in a different town, the health plan must provide you transportation

More KanCare Protections for You

- If you have a problem, a member advocate will help you file a complaint with your MCO
- Each MCO will have a group of members to advise them, this will be called a Member Advisory Council
- You will be asked how you like your MCO
- There are still no co-pays in KanCare

Good News about KanCare

- New extra (value-added) services offered by each KanCare MCO
- Improved service coordination for more people with serious health conditions or complex needs
- Continued basic adult dental services
- Same providers
- Same services

What will Stay the Same

- Your current services
- Your Medicaid ID number
- Your right to appeal
- Your right to choose your MCO each year

What will Change for Amerigroup Members

- Amerigroup will no longer be a KanCare MCO (after January 1, 2019)
- Amerigroup will make sure you get the services you need through December 31, 2018
- In early October, you will get a packet with a letter assigning you to Aetna starting in January 2019
- If you want to stay with Aetna, you do not have to do anything
- If you want to choose Sunflower or United, the letter will tell you how to do that

Your Questions

- Please wait for a microphone
- One question at a time (we'll come back if needed)
- If you'd rather, use a notecard to write your comment
 - Let us know if you need assistance

Things to Remember

- Don't throw away your packet!
- Read everything carefully or have someone read it to you
- Look at the extra services chart (the big one) to see what extra services are best for you
- Check with your doctor or call the MCO to see if your doctor is in the MCO network

More Things to Remember

- If you don't want to change the MCO you are with, do nothing
- If you want to change:
 - Call the number on the form, or
 - Return the form with your choice checked
- You have until April 3, 2019 to make your final choice
- You will continue to choose your MCO every year after that
